[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] Washington, J 29.—On the score card to-day both clubs had the names of two ecruits. The Giants had Lyons, recently of the Jersey City Club, booked for right fie., and O'Day, just purchased from the Washingtons. .. as down for extra man.

The Senators' list contained the names of John Irwin and Beecher. Both these men were secured a day or two ago

Manager Mutrie brought fourteen of his pennant winners to town with him, leaving Tiernan, Slattery and Welch invalided in New

It is a matter of much comment that whenever the New York Club comes here they bring wet weather with them.

It rained last night, and all this morning the weather was extremely threatening. This afternoon the sun showed itself for a brief time, but a high wind soon gathered the separated clouds in one imass, and at a half hour before the time set for the game drops of water were falling with a persistent regularity that argued

The gates at this time had been opened and a few hundred spectators had already assembled. John Irwin, the Senators' new third baseman. is a brother of Arthur 1rwin, the Washington's

The two bear a strong resemblance to each other, but John is somewhat taller and much heavier than his brother. The Giants are all very much amused to read the rhapsody which the Boston papers are printing, now that their Club has succeeded in gaining a few points in the race, and there is considerable speculation as to what those same papers will say when, at the close of the next Western trip, the champions will be found in the lead; for there is not a man in the Club who does not firmly believe that Umpire-Phil Baker. First Inning-Hoy opened the game with a quick grounder to Connor, who made an excellent stop and carried the ball to first. Wilmot was unsuccessful in his three attempt to hit the ball, and Beecher, though he hit the sphere, was easily retired on a pop fly which Richardson caught. No runs.

Gore listened to "three balls," heard "two strikes" called and then knocked a long fly to centre, which Hoy capped hands to Wise took Bichardson's fly in out of the wetl Ewing. however, couldn't withstand a beseech-ing glance levelled at him from a pair of pretty black eyes in the grand stand, and obediently shot a single past second.

Buck travelled to third when Connor's hot grounder got the better tussle with Carney. Connor stole second, and run-getting depended on Ward.

John showed himself equal to the demand and his single to centre brought Ewing home. Connor reached third on the hit, but on the throw in Ward tried for second and, though he reached the base in time, he slid past it and was touched out by Wise. One run. Second Inning-Wise was hit by a pitched ball and took first. Four balls were then called on Irwin and he took first, while the sprinkle increased to a very fair shower. John Irwin was given an enthusiastic welcome and Whitney proceeded to make the ambitious youngster look sick by making a very pretty running catch of his foul fly. After knocking about a dozen fouls little Keefe went out on a grounder to Connor. The out advanced both runners a reg, but Daly ended hopes of immediate runs by going out on a grounder which Whitney fielded to first. No runs. Lyons initiated himself as a Giant bat, man by drubbling a slow grounder towards right, which Carney fielded to Keefe in time, so said the mapire, for an out.

sanging the first hit of the game, a clean single to centre.

Hoy followed with a hit which scratched itself nto a single between Ward and Whitney. Wilmot dwarfed a pop fly which Gore caught short centre.

Then Beecher made himself solid with the crowd by smashing a line hit between left and centre for two good bases, both Carney and Coroner Bennett's Trip Puts an Three Men. a Boy, a Horse and Wise went out on a grounder which Ward sent to first and Beecher moved up to third. Irwin sent his side to the field by retiring at first on a grounder to Keefe. Two runs.

Richardson hit an easy fly to Beecher. Ewing should have been sent to first on balls, but the fourth bad one was called a strike and Buck was obliged to hit the next one.

The result was a grounder, which Arthur Irwin fielded to first, Connor, too, retired, his hit being stopped and borne to first by Carney.

Fourth Inning-Four balls gave J. Irwin first, but he was forced at second by Keefe's grounder to Whitney. Daly's high foul, splendidly caught by Ewing.

afforded Keefe an opportunity to hustle to second, and the little fellow wasn't slow to accept the chance. Carney made the third out, Ward and Connor Derforming the labor. No juns.

Ward bunted the ball, but failed to beat Keefe's throw to first. Lyons went out from Wise to Carney.

O'Rourke boosted a base bit to centre, but was declared out in an attempt to steal second. No nition.

Fifth Inning—Hoy was knocked dumb with surprise at his strike out. Buck saw a foul fly shoot up into the air from Wilmot's bat and offered to bet a hundred he would catch it.

As no one took him up and the ball landed in his hands, Buck had to owe himself a hundred. Richardson saw to it that Beccher was properly attended to at first. No runs.

Wise made an extremely pretty assist from Whitney's hot and apparently safe grounder. The crowd yelled its delight and Whitney sat down.

Keefe fauned the darksome air and followed Whitney's example.

Gore, for the second time, struck out. No runs.

Sixth Inning—Big Wise popped up a weak little fly and Whitney caught it. Fifth Inning-Hoy was knocked dumb with fly and Whitney caught it.

Arthur Irwin placed a clean hit to left, but was easily caught in his attempt to steal second. John Irwin accepted four balls, but went to sleep and was caught off first by a clever throw of Ewing. No runs.

Richardson was the first New Yorker to gain a base on balls, and Ewing's sacrifice grounder to Wise helped him along to second. Richardson started for third just as Connor mocked a bewhiskered liner to centre. The hit seemed safe, but Hoy made a fast run splendid catch and sent the ball to second in ime to double up Richardson. No runs. Seventh Inning-Keefe's fly back of second vas properly handled by Richardson. Lyons easily handled flies hit by Daly and Carney. No runs. Ward silently trotted to first when four balls was called, but was called out when he tried for Lyons went out, Wise to Carney. O'Rourke was presented with first, but he. oo, was caught en route to second. No runs. Eighth Inning-Hoy grounded to Richardson.

Wilmot hit safely.

He was caught off first and run down by Keefe, Connor, Ward and Richardson. Whitney put a choker on Beecher's foul fly. No runs. New York made three runs.

BASEBALL TIPS.

Interesting Gossip Among the Men of the Diamond.

Ewing has played in more games than any other League catcher. He is third in fielding among the catchers and second in batting among all Lea wers. Tiernan and Gore have made more errors than any other League fielders in their positions, but the latter has tried chances that few fielders would risk their record on.

Joe Gerhardt, of the disbanded Jersey City nine, has been eagerly approached by Manager Burnham, of the Worcester team. Burnam, of the worcester seam.

Among the League pitchers Clarkson has played in the most games, O'Brien has had the fewest carned runs off his delivery, and Reefs has been hit safely the fewest times. The Giants will be at home to Philadelphia, and try to make up those three straight, the last three days of this week.
